ITEM! We're going to paraphrase a rather well-known pop song by an ex-Beatle this week, to tip you off to the title of our latest and perhaps greatest Captain Britain epic ever, "While the World Gently Weeps!" That's right, the world is in mourning for our Captains two, in the pages of CAPTAIN BRITAIN #20!

And, in the fascinating feature known as the Fantastic Four, Ben Grimm and Johnny Storm take off for South America, in a snappy story called "Three Stood Together!" The big surprise guest-star this time is the bombastic Black Panther, Prince of Wakanda and a full-fledged king in his own right! You've never seen action like this, fight fans! And, finally, still between the colourful covers of this same magnificent magazine, Nick Fury — Director of S.H.I.E.L.D. — strives mightily to avert Earthdeath in another Steranko story of surpassing imagination! Yes, all this and more awaits you in CAPTAIN BRITAIN #20 — miss it at your own risk!

ITEM! PLANET OF THE APES #123 is our really big news item this week, wondrous ones! It's the wrap-up of the malevolent mutants' so-called "Assault on Paradise," as well as of Conan's adventure in the city of mists — and it also features, in its entirety, the conclusion of BENEATH THE PLANET OF THE APES! Now, while that's easily news enough to take many a simian stalwart's breath away, it is not the real news at all! No, sirree! As it turns out, APES #123 is our very last issue — and with good reason, 'cause wait'll you hear what we've got in store for upcoming weeks! No, Smilin' Stan isn't getting his own book, but it's almost as exciting as that! To begin with, next week the Apes series will move to MIGHTY WORLD OF MARVEL!

guest-appearance in the Hulk's series in MIGHTY WORLD OF MARVEL #230, in a double-lengthed tale titled "And Man-Thing Makes Three!" It all happens in the floozy Florida Everglades, after jade-jaws falls from a spaceship — and if ya wanna know more than that, pal, ya gotta read the blamed story! Daredevil and Captain Marvel strive independently against forces of fear in fights for their very lives! It's a classic issue, and we did it all for you, the literate comics reader!

ITEM! SUPER SPIDER-MAN AND THE TITANS #211 features a nutty new villain named the Mirage, who pays an uninvited visit to the marriage of Betty Brant and Ned Leeds! But you know what they say: "On a Clear Day, You Can See . . . the Mirage!" Meanwhile, the Avengers take the "Measure of a Man," as the Vision strikes out against the Grim Reaper and the Space Phantom, but still manages to save the day! Captain America, Iron Man and the Invaders all prance through their pulsepounding paces, and in addition there's a scintillatin' centrespread of the Uncanny Inhumans by Dancin' Dave Menzel and Fluffy Duffy Vohland! So long, folks — and we'll see ya next week!

ITEM! the macabre Man-Thing makes a great big

A CHANCE TO SWOP

Dear Marvel,

I have been frantically collecting back issues of British Marvel comics for ages, but for the first time since I began I find myself with no more resources. So here is my plea.

If anybody out there has any "Planet of the Apes", "Dracula Lives" or "Conan" issues I would like to swop with many assorted American comics, such as The Fantastic Four, Ghost Rider, Man-Wolf, Daredevil and others along those lines. For a list please write to 11 Anson Ave., Lichfield, Staffs, WS13 7EU. Enclose a list of comics up for offer and your terms for a deal.

Murray Bailey,
11 Anson Ave.,
Lichfield, Staffs.

We owe it to you, Murray, to let all who read this know that you penned TWO letters to us. One (the one above) for publication, and one for our eyes. And that second one we'd like to state showed a very deep understanding of what Marvel is about.

NO SHIVERS...?

Dear Marvel, Stan and Co.,

No. No. No. How could you do this to me? I mean, putting Planet of the Apes in with Dracula Lives. I hardly seem to see a spine-chilling story any more. Why call it "Planet of the Apes and Dracula Lives" when there is no Dracula?

Karl Smith,
2 Blandford Rd.,
Reading, Berks.

Don't hit us too hard, Karl. We're working on the problem. And as soon as we can resurrect the Count, then we shall!

SECOND TIME IS GOOD TIME

Dear Stan,

I think Captain Britain is one of your best comics, along with Planet of the Apes, which I also get every week. I like the idea of you showing your adaptation of the first Apes film again in the back, as it gives readers who missed it in the first issues an opportunity at last. But what are you going to do when you've finished "Battle

..."? People have suggested you doing the TV series in comic form, but will it ever happen?

Paul Norton,
93 Fairfield Cres.,
Edgware, Middx.

The first Apes film was so widely popular that we had no hesitation in repeating it in our weekly mag. And letters such as yours go to prove that we weren't wrong in making that decision. What are we going to follow "Battle" with? We'll let you into a secret. At the time of tapping out this reply we just don't know. But we'll think of something.

IS THERE A 105 AND 106?

Dear Bullpen,

I have had POTA from No. 1 and enjoy the mag very much, it's FANTASTIC. This is mainly due to Mike Ploog's artwork. He could shade a little better at times, but otherwise he's great. The Ka-zar back-up stories are rubbish, but nobody's perfect.

The Apes should have more than 10-12 pages. I think half the mag would be better. The merger of POTA and DL was great, but a word of warning — don't let DL take over and dominate the mag. I have seen lots of mergers ruined due to over-domination by the "invader".

Would you please do something for me? I have POTA from ish 1 upwards except for Nos. 105 and 106. Please print this letter so people can see if they want to sell one or both of these issues. I will pay 9p each and pay for postage. If anybody would like to sell, please give me a ring on Woodhouse Eaves 890-250 Extension 1.

Steven Matchett,
Roeccliffe Manor,
Woodhouse Eaves, L'boro.

Over the months we've chewed a lot of fat over the question of more pages for the Ape stories. But the facts, Steve, are still as they were... which means that we don't see how we can lengthen the Apes episodes. Sure, we know it's a disappointment, but maybe the edge of it will be taken off if someone, somewhere comes up with those missing issues you crave.

THIRD TIME LUCKY

Dear Stan and the Gang,

This is my third time of writing to you and I hope, this time, it is published. I want to give you my views on the mags.

SPIDERMAN. Fantastic. In my view this is the best mag yet. His fight with The Jackal and Tarantula was a classic. Can we see more of Tarantula?

CAPTAIN BRITAIN. This comic is going fine. I do like the idea of putting a fun page in it. Please don't change the comic in any way, especially the covers. It's not that I don't like the glossy covers, I just prefer the paper cover.

PLANET OF THE APES. This is another good comic. The only complaint I have is that the title reads "Planet of The Apes and Dracula Lives." Where is Dracula Lives?

MARVEL. Great. Can we see more pages for the Hulk, he is one of my favourite heroes.

Simon Smith RFO,

Welling, Kent.

Welcome to the mail pages of mighty Marvel O persistent one. And thanks for giving us the benefit of your judgement on all that's currently going on. (Or, anyway, a large slice of what's currently going on.)
