

MOVIE SATIRE:

First there was the PLANET OF THE APES. As if this wasn't enough, along came RETURN TO THE PLANET OF THE APES. Now they've come up with still another ridiculous sequel, proving beyond any doubt that there's no . . .

ESCAPE from the BOREDOM of the APES

We'll keep them here in isolation until Dr. Lewish can study them! He's the foremost authority on apes. Also He's a brilliant animal psychologist. Mainly he's my wife's brother-in-law and he needs the work!

Fine ... and just to make them feel at home, we'll throw in an organ grinder!

Will you stop with those monkey jokes already! You're making me nauseous!

The way I see it ... you let one in, and there goes the whole planet!

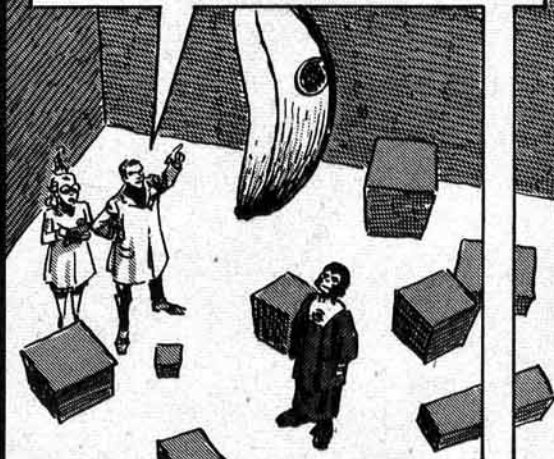

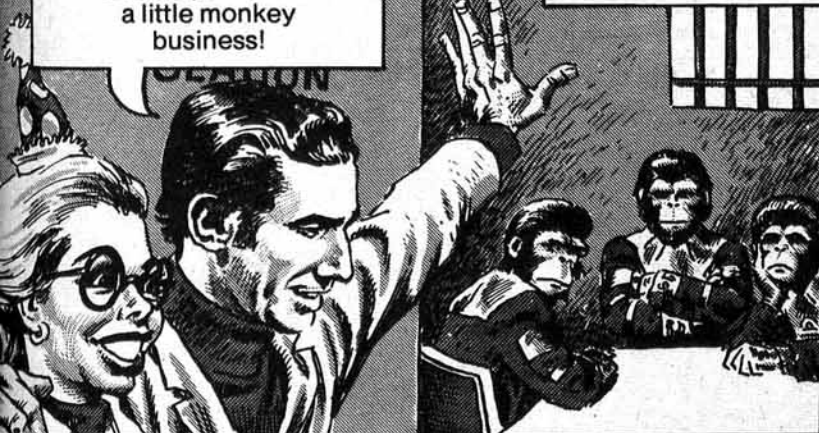

Hi, I'm Dr. Lewish ... foremost authority on apes, brilliant animal psychologist and, thank God, brother-in-law! The girl with me is my assistant Stewie and we're just good friends! She helps me with a little monkey business!

Man, in all my years of studying chimps I never saw such stupid-looking faces!

Well, let's begin with the psychological tests ... I want to see how dumb you really are!

I've put a banana way up on top here. The only way to get it is to pile up the assorted boxes lying around. O.K. now, let's see if you can figure it out!

And make it snappy ... I'm due back in the gorilla's cage at the Bronx Zoo in 20 minutes!

Shall I utilize the concept of centrifugal force, ESP object-displacement, or the Nuclear Absorption hypothesis?

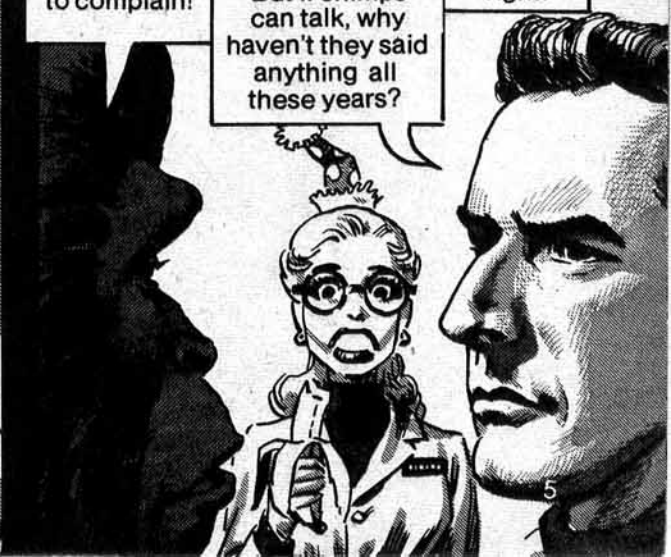

Utilize anything that comes into your ... WHAT? ... you talked! ... I can't believe it! ... Can you really talk?

No, not really! The other ape is a ventriloquist! Of course I can talk, you nitwit! You think I'm stupid or something?

Actually, we only talk when we want to complain!

That's fantastic! But if chimps can talk, why haven't they said anything all these years?

Up to now, everything was all right!

Well, we did it! We're national celebrities now. They're having us appear before a Presidential Committee. And if we do good, it could mean the Ed Sullivan Show!

And to think that on our planet we couldn't even get a B'nai Brith Club date!

Remember ... if they ask anything incriminating, just plead the Fifth!

Amendment?

No ... Dimension!

Where do you come from?

What took you so long getting here?

What's it like on your planet?

You say the Earth will be destroyed in the future. How??

We come from the future!

Long traffic light at Jupiter!

We are the masters and the Humans are in cages!

It will be blown up by a big bomb!

Why'd you return to the past?

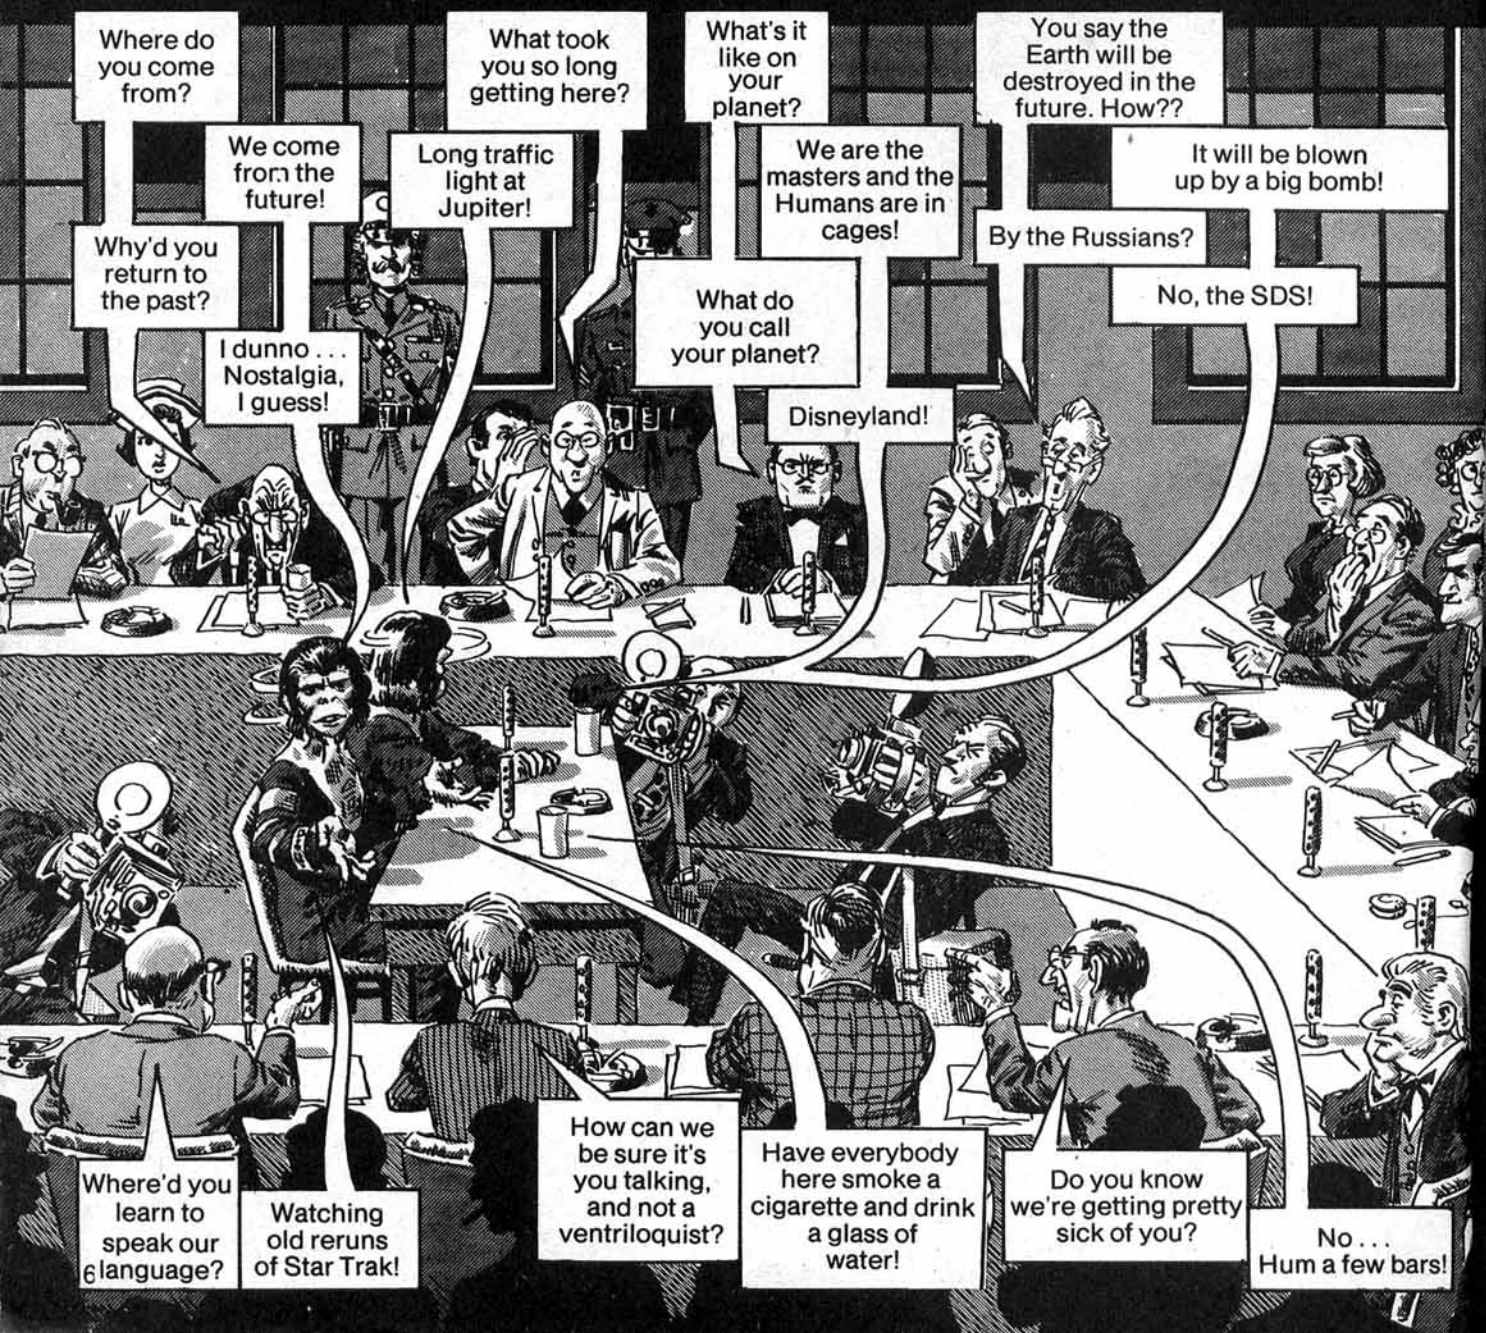

I dunno ... Nostalgia, I guess!

What do you call your planet?

By the Russians?

No, the SDS!

Disneyland!

Where'd you learn to speak our language?

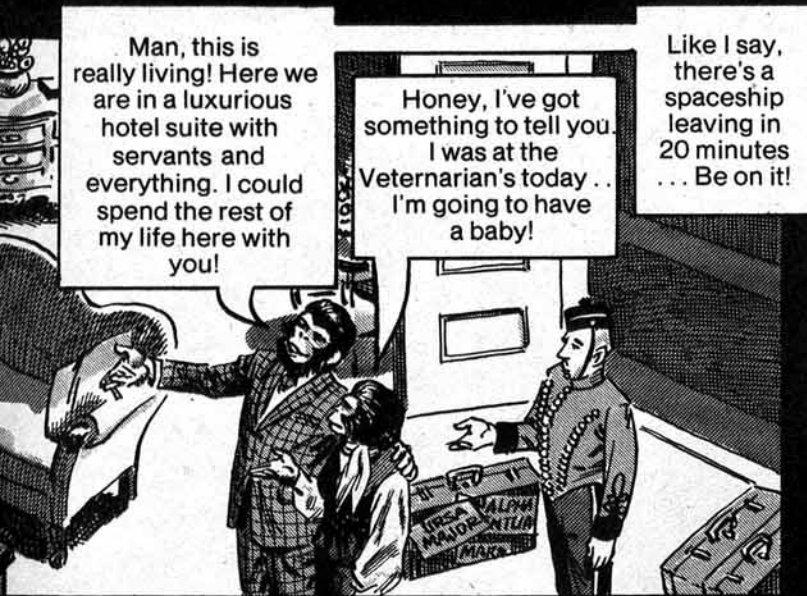

Watching old reruns of Star Trak!

How can we be sure it's you talking, and not a ventriloquist?

Have everybody here smoke a cigarette and drink a glass of water!

Do you know we're getting pretty sick of you?

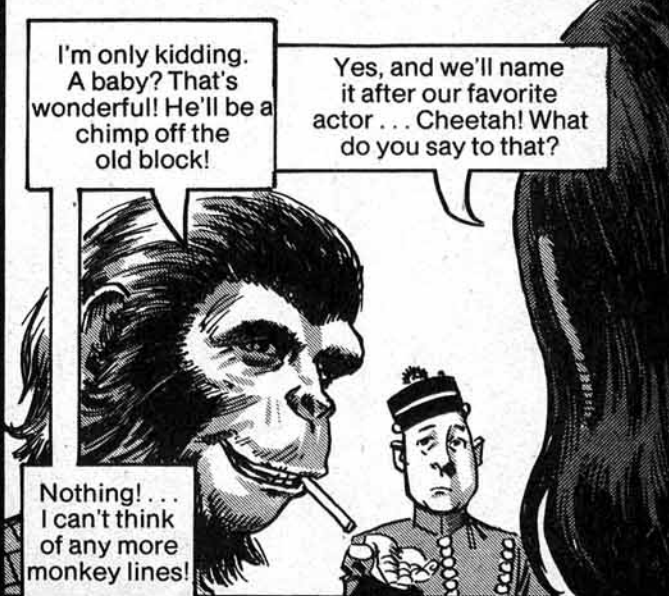

No ... Hum a few bars!

Man, this is really living! Here we are in a luxurious hotel suite with servants and everything. I could spend the rest of my life here with you!

Honey, I've got something to tell you. I was at the Veterinarian's today... I'm going to have a baby!

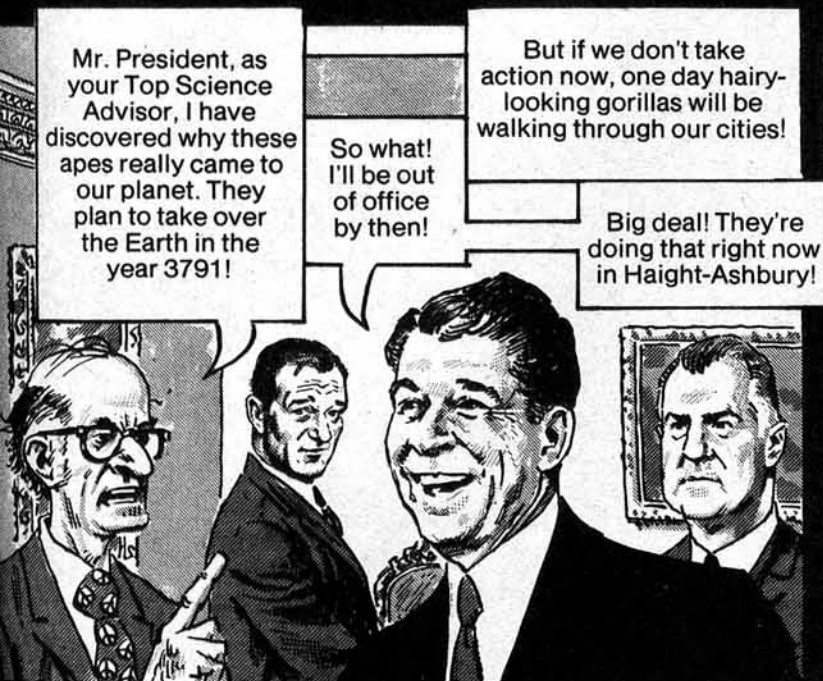

Like I say, there's a spaceship leaving in 20 minutes... Be on it!

I'm only kidding. A baby? That's wonderful! He'll be a chimp off the old block!

Yes, and we'll name it after our favorite actor... Cheetah! What do you say to that?

Nothing!... I can't think of any more monkey lines!

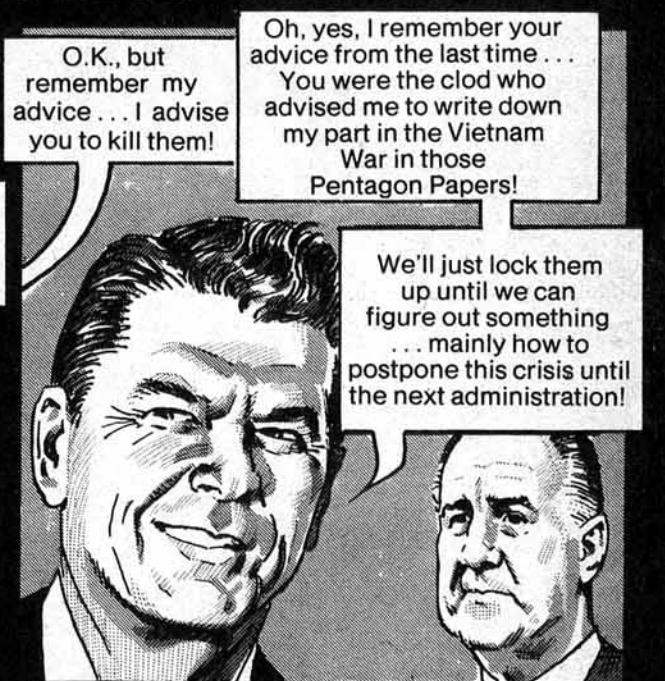

Mr. President, as your Top Science Advisor, I have discovered why these apes really came to our planet. They plan to take over the Earth in the year 3791!

So what! I'll be out of office by then!

But if we don't take action now, one day hairy-looking gorillas will be walking through our cities!

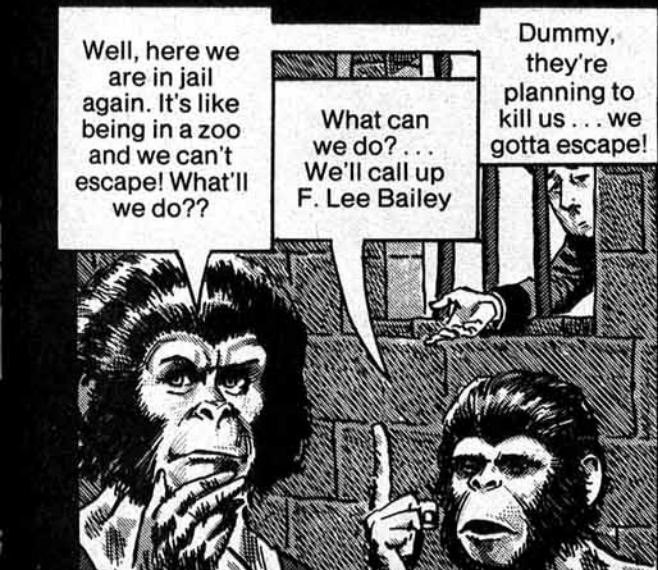

Big deal! They're doing that right now in Haight-Ashbury!

O.K., but remember my advice... I advise you to kill them!

Oh, yes, I remember your advice from the last time... You were the clod who advised me to write down my part in the Vietnam War in those Pentagon Papers!

We'll just lock them up until we can figure out something... mainly how to postpone this crisis until the next administration!

Well, here we are in jail again. It's like being in a zoo and we can't escape! What'll we do??

What can we do?... We'll call up F. Lee Bailey

Dummy, they're planning to kill us... we gotta escape!

O.K., I slugged the guard. We can leave now!

Now you went and did it! Now we're really in trouble! Now we'll never get out of this.

You mean just because I slugged a guard?

That was no guard, numbskull! That was F. Lee Bailey!

You can hide here in my Circus Zoo. I'll protect you. I won't let them take you away. You'll be safe with me!

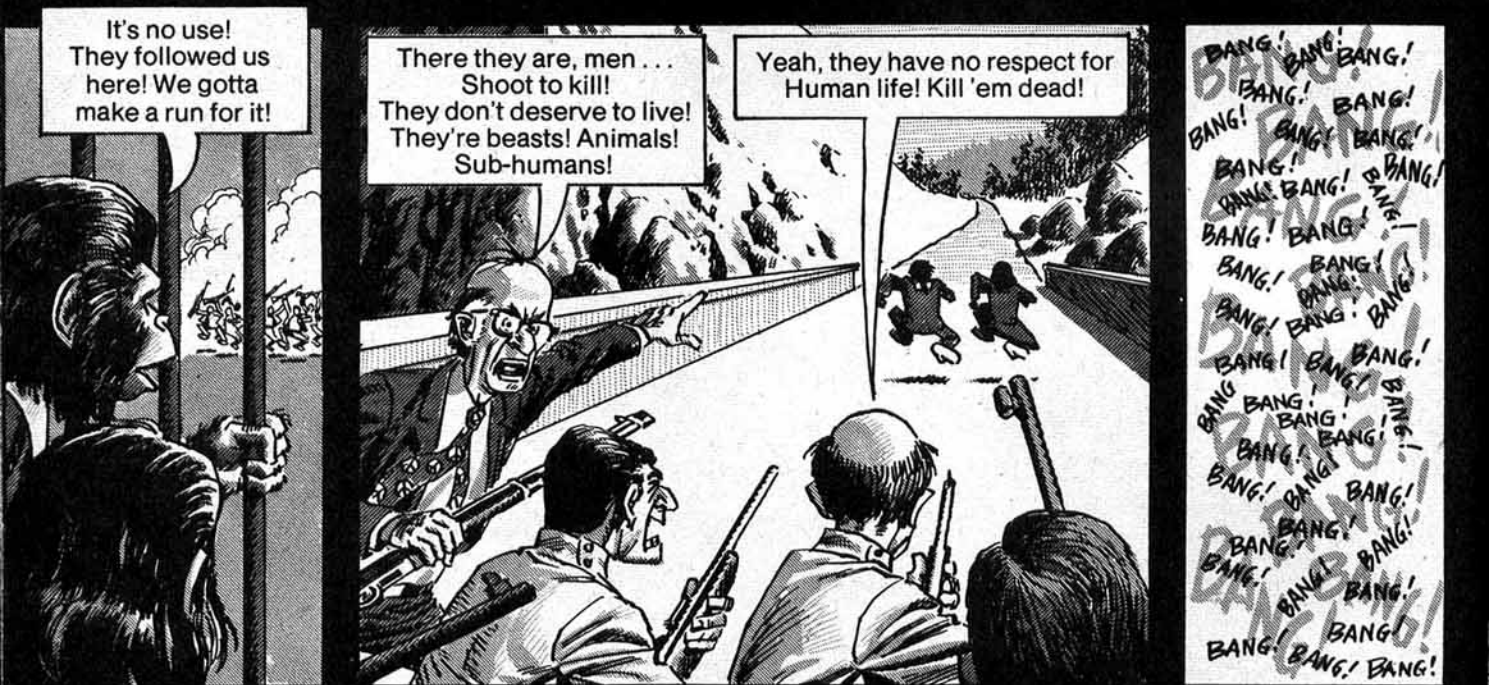

But why are you doing this for us?

Because you'll work for peanuts!

You can share a cage with another lady chimp who just had a baby!

Oh? Who's the father?

Who knows? They're on Welfare!

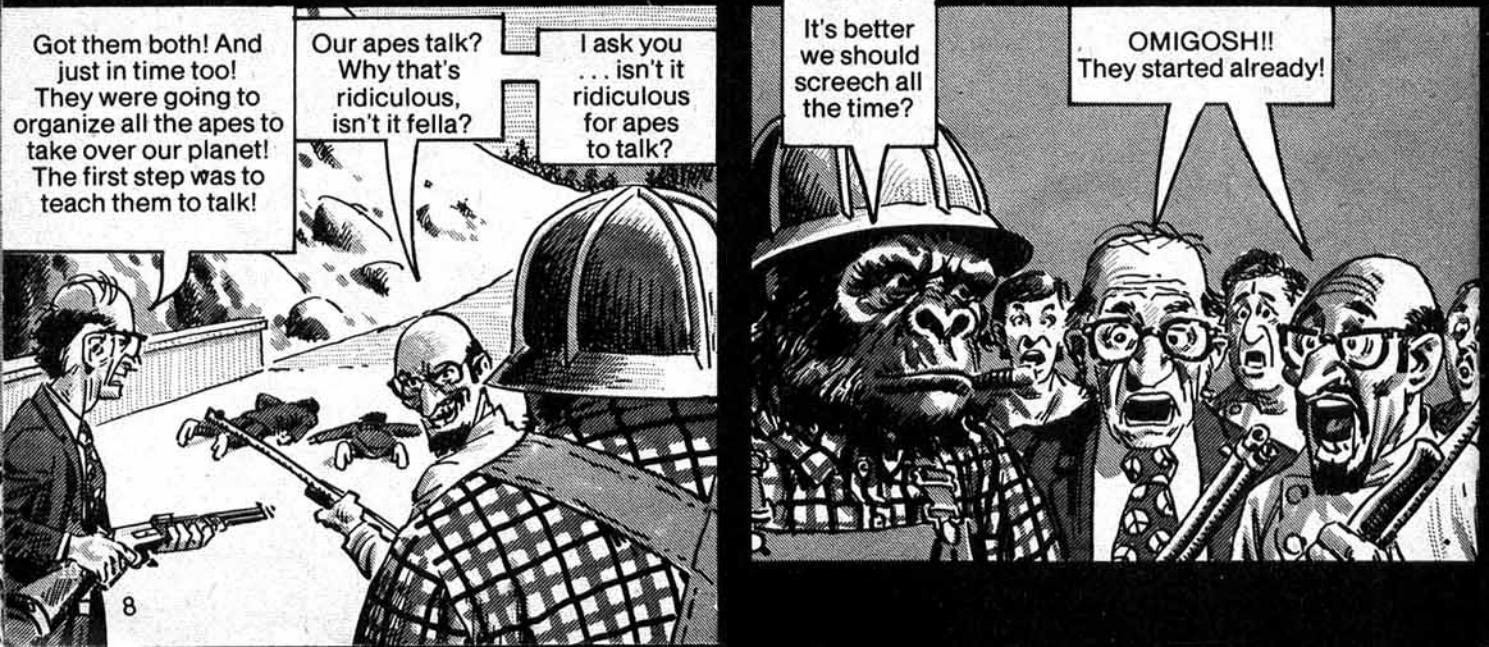

It's no use! They followed us here! We gotta make a run for it!

There they are, men... Shoot to kill! They don't deserve to live! They're beasts! Animals! Sub-humans!

Yeah, they have no respect for Human life! Kill 'em dead!

BANG! BANG! BANG!
BANG! BANG! BANG!
BANG! BANG! BANG!
BANG! BANG! BANG!

Got them both! And just in time too! They were going to organize all the apes to take over our planet! The first step was to teach them to talk!

Our apes talk? Why that's ridiculous, isn't it fella?

I ask you... isn't it ridiculous for apes to talk?

It's better we should screech all the time?

OMIGOSH!! They started already!
