Then hideous mutants from the Forbidden City savagely attack the apes and threaten their kingdom with total destruction. There's only one hope for survival... apes and men must work together — as equals! Smash-hit movie. 60¢

2. The Jackson 5—Ellen Motoviloff—Five brothers — Michael, Marlon, Jermaine, Tito, and Jackie —making the hottest Motown sound today! Read about their climb to success, their hopes for the future, the problems of being famous. Personal interviews with each. Photos. 50¢

3. The Diary Of A Young Girl — Anne Frank — For two years Anne Frank hid from the Nazi terror—and kept a diary the world can never forget. Her fears, joys, discoveries... her feelings of loneliness and finding her first love — all tell a tender, tragic, true story. A best-selling book and a prize-winning play. 50¢

4. Questions And Answers About Baseball — Bill Hongach with Bruce Weber — Which slugger hit the most grand slams in his career? Which pitcher is the all-time strikeout king? Which two teams committed the most errors in one game? Here are the answers to over 600 of the most frequently asked questions about baseball: about its pitchers, hitters, classic games and more. Illustrated. 45¢

5. Teenspell—Betty M. Owen, ed.—Who am I? What am I doing here? Where am I going? Over 30 award-winning stories, poems, and articles—all by junior and senior high students—tell what it's like to be young and alive. They describe themselves, their friends, families, and problems. Perhaps their solutions can help you. 45¢

6. Stories Of The Supernatural—Betty Owen, ed.—Things in the night... Trees that hate people... a boy who raises butterflies and something else... Close the door, shut the windows, turn off the TV. Seven horrifying stories in all, of men in touch with things, or beings, beyond the realm of the real! 50¢

7. Rascal—Sterling North —“Next moonlight night I'll shoot him. I'll set a trap, so help me.” How could anyone hurt Rascal, the wonderful pet raccoon who gets into more funny scrapes than you would believe! He and young Sterling live free and happy, sharing adventures as they dodge the men who try to kill Rascal. Fantastic true story. 60¢

8. The Boatniks—Mel Cebulash — Coast Guard officer Tom Garland is in over his head. On his first rescue mission, he gets rescued... Kate won't forget that paint he spilled on her head... and now he's a one-man FBI investigating a gang of wacky jewel thieves! Smash hit Disney comedy. 45¢

9. When The Legends Die —Hal Borland—Tom is a handsome loner — an Indian struggling to survive in a white man's world. He becomes a champion rodeo rider — and a hero in a hostile world. At war with himself and a past that refuses to die, it takes near-tragedy to make him find himself. Deeply moving novel and movie. 50¢

10. Lori—Dorothy Bastien — Johnny's harmless graduation party turns into a marijuana scandal! Even though it's all a mistake, Lori is sent to live with a father she hardly knows. Lonely and confused, she longs to be with Johnny — until a terrible incident leads her to a new understanding of herself, and of Johnny. 50¢

11. Channel Chuckles — Bil Keane — Turn off the set... tune in the fun! These TV ticklers are about people with TV-phobia, and the crazy things that happen when programs and commercials go berserk. More than 100 cartoons the whole family will howl over—and no station breaks between laughs! 45¢

12. By The Highway Home—Mary Stolz—Sun-blue eyes, tall, handsome —Dunc is more than Catty could have hoped for. But can he help her forget the sad memories of her brother, the cruelty of her beautiful sister, or the tragic past that's forced her family far from home? A tender, sensitive story about growing up. 45¢

13. Easy Motorcycle Riding — Theresa Wallace — There's nothing as exciting as riding a motorcycle — free and independent! This book tells you everything you need to know on how to buy, operate, maintain, and repair a motorcycle. Includes diagrams and glossary. Don't miss out on the excitement! 50¢

14. Going On Sixteen — Betty Cavanna — Julie Ferguson is pretty and talented — and shy and miserable! No dates, no fun, no real friends... why must she always be so self-conscious? It takes a thoroughbred collie and a boy named Dick to show Julie that going on sixteen can be absolutely wonderful! 45¢

15. Lost Horizon—James Hilton — Shangri-La: a beautiful paradise... a commune of peace and love... a haven from war and conflict. Who has not dreamed of a country where people don't grow old, where all needs are met? But Hugh Conway, flown there against his will, falls in love with Lo-Tsen, exotic Manchu princess, and attempts to escape with her! A famous novel and hit movie. 60¢

16. The Mod Squad: Sock-It-To-'Em Murders —Richard Deming — The woman lay horribly dead, crushed beneath tons of steel! The Mod Squad was investigating a case of industrial espionage... but now Captain Greer tells Julie, Pete, and Linc, “Now you're not just looking for a saboteur. You're hunting for a murderer!” A thrilling adventure with TV's popular Mod Squad. 50¢

17. The Old Man And The Sea—Ernest Hemingway —Only the boy believed in the old man... wished him luck when he went out after the great fish. The others said he was too old, had lost too often. But Santiago risks everything to conquer the giant fish — tests all his strength and power against the hostile sea. To him, it is the ultimate test of courage... 60¢

18. Dave's Song—Robert McKay — At 17, Dave Burdick is handsome, cool and independent... a loner who has no room in his life for girls. Then he meets Kate, who doesn't want to like him. But almost in spite of herself, she learns to accept him—even love him —on his own terms. 50¢

19. Emma In Love—Honor Arundel — When will Emma realize that loving doesn't mean owning? She's miserable waiting for Alastair's phone calls, insecure when she's with him, and jealous of his other friends and interests. No wonder he's becoming cool toward her. Life seems lonely and bleak... until a change of scenery brings new hope... 45¢

20. The House Of The Seven Gables—Nathaniel Hawthorne—An eccentric old maid, an evil judge, and a young girl—the last of a proud New England family—live with ancient secrets and a bitter past. CAMPUS CLASSIC • 1957-1970
THE RED BADGE OF COURAGE
 STEPHEN CRANE

24. The Red Badge Of Courage—Stephen Crane—Bullets scream overhead . . . a young Civil War recruit looks down the ragged lines of battle in terror. Will he run and be a live coward? Or will he stay to fight—and perhaps be a dead hero? America's first realistic war novel — still unsurpassed! 45¢

Peppermint

25. Peppermint — David A. Sohn, ed.—What are teens thinking about, wondering about, laughing about? You'll find out in this great collection of stories, articles, and poems by Scholastic Jr. Writing Award winners. Comedy, tragedy, science-fiction, romance, surprise endings . . . Fun to read, and full of ideas for your own writing. 45¢

29. American Pop—David Dachs—The tuned in, turned on; gut music of today. Where did it come from . . . where is it going . . . who makes it what is it? Find out about the songs and the stars in this engrossing history of American pop music. Includes biographies and photos. 35¢

33. Walkabout — James Vance Marshall—Lost in an uninhabited wilderness in Australia . . . alone . . . scared . . . with no food or water. How will Mary and her brother survive? Then a native boy appears—to him, these strange creatures are helpless; without him on their journey, he knows they'd die. A powerful story of an unusual friendship; also a dramatic movie. 35¢

26. Only Earth And Sky Last Forever — Nathaniel Benchley—Hunger and humiliation—and that the white man breaks promises—are the only things the Indian Agency taught Dark Elk. To prove his courage and win the girl he loves, he joins Crazy Horse to fight white soldiers who threaten Indian land. At the battle of Little Big Horn, he learns the hardest lesson . . . 50¢

30. Anna And The King Of Siam—Margaret Landon—Can a young and pretty Englishwoman defy the ruthless, unpredictable King of Siam? When Anna enters the royal palace as a teacher, she is shocked by the King's tyrannical rages. But with pride and spirit, she stands up to his anger and comes to understand him. An amazing true story, musical and movie! 60¢

34. The Music Man—Meredith Willson—What a racket! First Professor Hill talks the River City folks into ordering band uniforms—then he skips town with the order money. But the unexpected hits when he falls for Marian—the only person he doesn't dazzle! Photos plus all the lyrics from the hit musical. 35¢

27. Steve McQueen: Star On Wheels — William Nolan—“I'm not sure whether I'm an actor who races or a racer who acts.” One thing is sure—Steve McQueen is solid on both. He was a punk kid with no family and no place to go, except orphanages and state homes. Now read his inside story—of the compulsive champion racer, the dazzling superstar, and the private man. 50¢

31. The Mosquito Fleet—Bern Keating—They looked like terriers fighting grizzlies, but the bantam-weight PT's of WWII more than made up for their size. Manned by daredevils whose motto was “get in close”, no assignment was too big or too hazardous! Action-packed, true stories of Navy men who battled against terrible odds and lived to tell it. 35¢

35. Cromwell — Arthur Bates—Cromwell . . . the 17th century rebel who dared to challenge the royal establishment! Here's the story of a court seething with greed and corruption, a King fighting for his crown at the cost of his honor, a nation brought to the brink of civil war, and Cromwell — the simple farmer who held their fate in his powerful hands. Photos from the movie. 50¢

28. A Tale Of Two Cities — Charles Dickens—Terror sweeps through London and Paris in this mighty novel of the French Revolution. Meet handsome Charles Darnay, ex-nobleman who sided with the people; brilliant Sidney Carton, who redeemed a worthless life by making the supreme sacrifice for Lucie, the beautiful French girl he loved. These and many others make a superb story of war, love and tragic self-sacrifice. 50¢

32. The Life And Words Of St. Francis Of Assisi—Ira Peck—The pampered son of a rich Italian merchant, Francis abandons his wealth and rebels against his father to devote his life to God! What leads him to his love of nature and of all living things? What changes him from a careless pleasure-seeker into the beloved St. Francis? Inspiring true story—basis for the movie. Brother Sun, Sister Moon. 45¢

36. The Magnetic Man—Norman Daniels—20 million dollars in cash is in the suitcase handcuffed to secret agent Steed's wrist. A Communist agent wants it — badly enough to kill for it—and invents a series of terrifying traps to stop Steed. Suspenseful, fast-paced spy story based on TV's The Avengers. 45¢
