

FADE IN:

June 1973. Los Angeles, California

EXT. MCKINLEY AND SONS NAVAL SCRAP YARD-AFTERNOON

We see a large group of soldiers and L.A. police officers milling around an old condemned cargo ship. Many police and military vehicles are lined up on the pier as we see a lot of movement on and off the old ship.

CUT TO:

EXT. CLOSE UP OF AN AMBULANCE

We see an ambulance with the rear door open as two workers are putting another body in the rear of the ambulance as another body is in as the soldiers and police officers look on.

EXT. THE AMBULANCE DRIVES OFF TO THE L.A. CORONER'S OFFICE

The ambulance drives off with the with the two bodies in the back.

ANOTHER ANGLE

EXT. MEDIUM SHOT- U.S. AIR FORCE OFFICER

An Air Force Major is on a two-way walky-talky. He is talking to someone on the other end.

MAJOR LEE

They are en route. Start the operation Lieutenant.

LIEUTENANT (O.S.)

Yes sir. We'll be ready for them.

MAJOR LEE

Lieutenant. Don't screw this up.

CUT TO:

EXT. MEDIUM SHOT- U.S AIR FORCE OFFICER NEAR CAR

On a rural road leading into the city of Los Angeles an Air Force officer is standing near a staff car while a Sergeant in the driver's seat is waiting.

LIEUTENANT

Yes sir, I won't mess this up.

INT. INSIDE AIR FORCE STAFF CAR

LIEUTENANT

Alright Sergeant. Let's go.